DESSERT WINES

FLAVORED AND NON-GRAPE WINES

One of the hardest things about being a wine editor in the West is that niggly feeling that I'm just not keeping up—with the amazing cache of old-time wineries clustered in well-established wine regions, let alone the veritable flood of new producers coming online in regions old and emerging. Consider: Ten years ago there were about 300 bonded wineries in Washington State; today there are more than 800. With somewhere in the neighborhood of 4,000 in California—and almost 9,000 in the United States—you'd think I could forgive myself for a few unknown bottles.

Tough to do, though, when I feel responsible for pointing people to the best, and the best might just be a wine I haven't tasted yet. But now I have a tool: the Sunset International Wine Competition! In its third year, nearly 3,000 wines were entered. More than 50 judges—some of the West's most experienced wine tasters (see facing page)—gathered to vet them, to award medals to the best.

HOW WE JUDGED

- Each wine was tasted blind by a panel of three judges. The panelists discussed the wines but scored them individually. We awarded medals based on a wine's average score.
- The highest-scoring wine in each category won Best in Class, unless that wine did not score in Gold Medal territory.
- New World wines (those from outside Europe, including Australia, New Zealand, Argentina, and Chile, etc.) were tasted in flights by variety. Old World wines (from France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Germany, Greece, even Slovenia) were tasted by region.

OUR GUIDE TO THE BEST

We've listed all our Gold and Silver Medal winners on these pages, color coded by type of medal. Each Gold wine has a brief tasting note included, to let you know what the judges loved about it (they didn't give out Golds lightly). Sponsored label ads, where included, didn't influence judging or results. To see our complete list, including Bronze Medal winners, go to sunset.com/2014medals.

I hope wine lovers everywhere will use this Sunset International Wine Competition 2014 list as I do—as a shortcut to learning about, and tasting, many more of the world's great wines than any of us could on our own.

Happy sipping!

CHARDONNAY: 2011

★ Testarossa 2011 “Cuvée Los Gatos” Chardonnay (Monterey County; $23) Delicate pear, apple, and kiwi notes with a dash of vanilla and spice. The finish is long and elegant—citrusy minerality under almond, grapefruit zest, and tropical hints.

Holman Ranch 2011 Estate Grown Chardonnay (Carmel Valley; $28) Toasty oak, brioche, and cinnamon season the crisp apple and citrus flavors of this medium-bodied, bright Chardonnay.

Meadowcroft 2011 Bonneau Vineyard Chardonnay (Sonoma County; $26) Intriguing hints of cream soda, cedar, and brown sugar lurk in this citrusy wine, which finishes crisp and clean.

Sonoma-Cutrer 2011 “The Cutrer” Chardonnay (Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County; $35) Aromas of caramel and cream and a palate of crisp golden apple and citrus highlight this broad, refreshing wine.

Chalone Vineyard 2011 Estate Grown Chardonnay (Chalone; $25)

Edna Valley Vineyard 2011 Paragon Chardonnay (Central Coast; $15)

Sonoma-Cutrer 2011 “Les Pierres” Chardonnay (Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County; $36)

Souverain 2011 Chardonnay (North Coast; $14)

CHARDONNAY: 2012

★ Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars 2012 “Karia” Chardonnay (Napa Valley; $35) Great energy and definition, with subtle vanilla and spice complementing crisp apple and citrus fruit through a bright, clean finish.

Black Stallion 2012 Limited Release Chardonnay (Napa Valley; $32) Tropical fruit-driven, with a lemony accent, this Chardonnay is mouth-filling and approachable, with a pleasantly oily texture and lingering finish.

Clos Du Val 2012 Chardonnay (Carneros; $28) A crowd-pleasing wine with juicy peach, apple, and tropical fruit flavors; hints of toast and spice; and a lush yet refreshing finish.

Fog Head 2012 Chardonnay (California; $10) This Chard favors less ripe, crisp fruit and zingy acidity over richness and weight. Pretty aromas of orange blossom, chamomile, and brioche lead to bright melon, grapefruit, apple, and peach flavors.

Franciscan 2012 “Cuvée Sauvage” Chardonnay (Carneros, Napa Valley; $40) Vibrantly styled, with Meyer lemon and lemon curd character and strikingly racy acidity. Judicious use of oak adds a rich mouth-feel without muting this wine’s freshness.

Fritz 2012 Chardonnay (Russian River Valley; $25) Varietally true, with expressive citrus, melon, and tropical fruit that’s luscious and smooth. The finish is crisp and clean.

Jekel 2012 “Gravelstone” Chardonnay (Arroyo Seco, Monterey; $18) Floral aromas lead to a medium-bodied palate with a textured layer of tropical and stone-fruit flavors lingering on the finish.

Jordan 2012 Chardonnay (Russian River Valley; $30) Ripe stone fruit leads on the palate, with a hint of butterscotch in the background. The taut, high-acid finish of this refined wine promises a long life in the cellar.

Kimmel 2012 Chardonnay (Mendocino County; $32) Honey-suckle, spiced pear, and apple aromas lead into a full-bodied palate with a toasty, creamy texture. Serve with rich dishes.

Lapostolle 2012 Cuvée Alexandre Atalayas Vineyard Chardonnay (Casablanca Valley, Chile; $25) Layered over a creamy midpalate are ripe citrus, Mandarin orange, mango, and papaya fruits plumped by bright acidity. Excellent balance.

Lost Canyon 2012 Ruxton Vineyard Chardonnay (Russian River Valley; $35) Clean, lean, and bracing, with citrus blossom aromas, crisp pear and stone-fruit flavors, and a lingering, lemony finish.

Miner 2012 Chardonnay (Napa Valley; $30) Boldly ripe tropical and apple fruit is wrapped in creamy vanillin oak, with a buttery note and a long, crisp finish.

Montevina 2012 Omira Hills Chardonnay (California; $10) Heady citrus blossom and lemon verbena aromas highlight this rich and complex wine, which has a mouth-filling texture and lingering finish.

Red Car 2012 Chardonnay (Sonoma Coast; $35) Rich, butter-coated apple and pear fruit flavors finish with creamy vanilla and vibrant acidity in this hedonistic wine.

Rodney Strong 2012 Chardonnay (Sonoma County; $17) Richly oaked, with sweet apple fruit, this is a plush and complex Chard, with a smooth, fruity finish.

Round Hill 2012 Chardonnay (California; $8) Slightly floral, with a solid core of acidity that supports juicy peach and lemon curd fruit and a baked-meringue note.

rutherfordwine.com

Scott Family 2012 Dijon Clone Chardonnay (Arroyo Seco; $25) Partial barrel fermentation lends background vanillin and caramel notes, yet doesn’t mute the deep tropical and yellow stone fruit. A wine with great verve.

True Myth 2012 Chardonnay (Edna Valley; $18) Lovely green apple, peach, and citrus aromas and flavors are backed by minerality and bright acidity. This Chard has a good energy and refreshment quotient.

ZD 2012 Chardonnay (California; $37) As bold, toasty, and buttery as Chardonnay gets, yet it’s supremely balanced, thanks to refreshing acidity that frames the ripe apple and spicy oak.

★ Husch 2013 Late Harvest Gewürztraminer (Anderson Valley; $25) The fungus Botrytis, also known as “noble rot,” is encouraged in the vineyard for the production of dessert wines, and this one has Botrytis in spades. It’s unctuously honeyed, with dried apricot and orange marmalade notes and bracing acidity on the finish for balance.

Navarro 2013 Cluster Select Late Harvest Gewürztraminer (Anderson Valley; $35) Juicy and rich, with a peachy ambrosia quality and firm acidity to balance out the sweetness.

BLACK/RED MUSCAT

★ Quady 2012 “Elysium” Black Muscat (California; $25) A wine of impact and full-on sweetness, with rose petal, black cherry, dark chocolate, and honey notes balanced by vigorous acidity on the long finish.

ORANGE MUSCAT

★ Quady 2012 “Essensia” Orange Muscat (California; $25) Sweet, full-bodied, and balanced, with spiced orange and apricot flavors and a dollop of honey on the clean, smooth close.

PINOT BLANC

★ Winter’s Hill 2013 Pinot Blanc (Dundee Hills, Oregon; $17) Stainless-steel fermentation preserves the very bright green apple and citrus flavors of this intense, high-energy wine.

★ Clos Du Val 2011 Cabernet Sauvignon (Napa Valley; $38) Admirably rich plum and blackberry fruit from an unusually cool vintage; focused and elegant, with crisp acidity, polished tannins, and a long, generous finish.

Clos du Bois 2011 “Marlstone” (Alexander Valley; $50) High marks for complexity and a keen balance of ripe black currants and blueberries, firm tannins, minerality, and crisp acidity. This one can go in the cellar for a decade or more.

estate1856.com

Estate 1856 2011 76% Cabernet Sauvignon/12% Petit Verdot/12% Malbec (Sonoma County; $38) A leaner style of Cab, with bright cherry and boysenberry fruit, great length, fine-grain tannins, and refreshing acidity.

jamiesonranch.com

Jamieson Ranch 2011 “Double Lariat” Cabernet Sauvignon (Napa Valley; $45) Unusual for Cab, this one is barrel-fermented (and, more traditionally, barrel-aged), showing brambly blackberry flavor, intense spice, and a mouth-coating, medium-acid finish.

jonesofwashington.com

Jones of Washington 2011 Estate Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon (Wahluke Slope; $15) Perfumed violet and lavender aromas lead to a rich, toasty palate of ripe black fruit, coffee, and a pleasant earthiness.

Louis M. Martini 2011 Cabernet Sauvignon (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $34) Aromatically complex in its oak, cedar, mint, bell pepper, and black currant character, with similar flavors and a dry, slightly dusty finish.

Wente 2011 Charles Wetmore Estate Grown Cabernet Sauvignon (Livermore Valley, San Francisco Bay; $30) A classically styled Cabernet, offering complex black cherry, cassis, cedar, leather, and toasty oak, with a silky texture and lingering finish.

William Hill 2011 Cabernet Sauvignon (Napa Valley; $40) A sweet entry of black currant and oak-derived vanilla is followed by spicy, well-ripened red and black fruit. Medium-bodied and supple, this is a Cab for any-day drinking.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON: 2012-2013

★ Buena Vista 2013 Vinicultural Society Cabernet Sauvignon (Sonoma; $15) A powerful, well-stuffed wine that remains balanced and beautiful, with pure, concentrated dark fruit, firm structure, a whiff of leafy herbs, and a lively finish.

Alamos 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon (Mendoza, Argentina; $13) Clearly not West Coast, this one has Old World madrone and garrigue aromas, tight-as-a-drum structure, understated dark fruit, and promise that it will blossom 3 to 10 years from now. (Or drink now with beef.)

Clos du Bois 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (North Coast; $15) A drink-now wine with bright red currant, baking spice, a hint of earth, moderate oak, and soft tannins. There's enough acid structure here for five or so years of aging.

Columbia Crest 2012 "H3" Cabernet Sauvignon (Horse Heaven Hills; $15) Effusively aromatic with cassis, cherry, anise, black tea, and coconut notes leading to creamy oak on the midpalate and a fresh, juicy finish.

Columbia Winery 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Columbia Valley; $12) An oak-driven, boldly structured wine with deep, concentrated dark fruit that absorbs the wood. This one's very young and begs for a year of bottle age to show its stuff.

Francis Coppola Diamond Collection 2012 Ivory Label Cabernet Sauvignon (California; $18) Rich berry compote aromas and juicy midpalate flavors of fresh raspberry and cherry are easy to embrace, with gentle tannins adding sideline support.

Francis Ford Coppola Director's Cut 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $27) Savory notes of sage, earth, and toast join plump plum and mulberry fruit in this muscular wine; cellar it for a few years or drink now with beef or lamb.

HandCraft Artisan Collection 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (California; $13) An easy-going Cab with floral and bubble gum aromas, soft tannins, and rich cherry, pomegranate, and raspberry fruit.

Irony 2012 Small Lot Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon (North Coast; $16) Blackberry pie aromas are followed by a remarkably balanced palate of black currant, minerals, ripe tannins, and refreshing acidity.

Katherine Goldschmidt 2012 Crazy Creek Cabernet Sauvignon (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $20) The plush mouth-feel offers luscious blackberry and black cherry fruit propped by spicy oak through an extra-long and juicy finish.

Lapostolle 2012 Cuvée Alexandre Apalta Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon (Colchagua Valley, Chile; $25) Admirably complex, with sweet blackberry and black cherry fruit, earthy minerality, licorice, elegant French oak, and an exceptionally long, round finish.

Legend of the Vine 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (California; $13) Sweet vanillin oak embraces intense blackberry fruit, a pleasant tarry note, and chewy tannins on the finish.

Lucinda & Millie 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Mendocino County; $11) Bright, slightly jammy red berry and cherry aromas and flavors stay fresh, thanks to crisp acidity, in this easy-to-love Cab.

Mantra 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $30) Dense with black fruit and significant tannins, this is a wine for uncorking now with rare steak and in a decade with more subtle meat dishes. Hints of mountain scrub, sage, and earth complete the package.

Montes 2012 Classic Series Cabernet Sauvignon (D.O. Colchagua Valley, Chile; $13) A refreshing Cabernet, delivering smoky aromas and vivid red and black currant fruit along with roasted herb aromas and flavors.

NEW WORLD REDS

Napa Cellars 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Napa Valley; $26) This “brawny ballerina” has muscular tannins and an herbal edge, yet plenty of concentrated red and black fruit for balance; it closes elegantly for its size.

Noble Vines 2012 “337” Cabernet Sauvignon (Lodi; $15) An uncomplicated yet charming wine with bright, juicy red fruit flavors that linger, thanks to crisp acidity.

Pearmund 2012 Silver Creek Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon (Virginia; $25) A fine example of outstanding Virginia wine, with a mix of rich blackberry and tart cranberry fruit, savory earthiness, and classic cedar and cigar box varietal character. The finish is long and elegant.

Ray’s Station 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Mendocino County; $17) Everything is in its place in this restrained wine, with well-ripened red fruit, toast, and spice melding nicely in a balanced whole.

The Great American Wine Company by Rosenblum Cellars 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (American; $13) Luxurious and generous, with blackberry and cassis flavors; background notes of graphite, espresso, vanilla, and licorice; and a rich, satisfying finish.

Trentadue 2012 “La Storia” Cabernet Sauvignon (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $35) Smoky oak and a roasted blackberry character make this concentrated wine stand out in the crowd. Notes of black tea, bergamot orange, and tobacco add to the intrigue.

Uppercut 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon (Napa Valley; $25) A pretty, young wine with gobs of ripe red fruit and juicy acidity supporting a refreshing, lengthy finish and suggesting success in the cellar.

★ Gnarly Head 2012 Malbec (Mendoza, Argentina; $12) Imported from Argentina and bottled in California, this Malbec is a classic, with bold, dark fruit and grippy tannins. The flavors are persistent from entry to finish, and crisp acidity cleanses the palate.

Bodega Norton 2011 Reserva Malbec (Mendoza, Argentina; $19) Distinctive iron, earth, and smoke lurk in the aromas, yet the palate turns polished and generous, with well-ripened, juicy black fruit and excellent structure.

Bodegas Salentein 2012 Reserve Malbec (Valle de Uco, Mendoza, Argentina; $19) On offer here are polished tannins, supple dark fruit, excellent structure, and a lengthy finish.

Huge Bear 2010 “Ursa Gigantes” (Sonoma County; $45) A dead ringer for a Mendoza Malbec, this Sonoma County big boy has an intense tobacco character that meshes with well-ripened blueberry and plum fruit.

PINOT NOIR: 2012–2013

★ Stephen Ross 2012 Pinot Noir (Santa Lucia Highlands; $25) Firmly structured for ageability; expressive in its ripe dark plum and blueberry fruit dressed in spicy oak; and very long and crisp on the finish.

Acacia 2012 Pinot Noir (Carneros; $28) Intense strawberry and black fruit flavors are rich and mouth-filling, with caramelly oak lending background complexity and depth.

Artesa 2012 Estate Reserve Pinot Noir (Carneros; $40) Rich in plump dark berries, yet with excellent acid tension, this Pinot offers complexity from notes of baking spice and vanilla. The chunky tannins beg to be served with hearty dishes.

Benziger Family 2012 Appellation Series Pinot Noir (Sonoma Coast; $29) Lovely spice and savory notes complement bright red-berry fruit through a long, mouth-watering finish.

Black Stallion 2012 Pinot Noir (Los Carneros; $28) A ripe, full-fruit wine with soft, pleasantly dusty tannins and a vibrant finish.

DeLoach 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley; $24) Bright and juicy, with red cherry and raspberry fruit, dashes of nutmeg and black pepper, and a crisp, supple finish.

Dutton-Goldfield 2012 Dutton Ranch, Emerald Ridge Vineyard Pinot Noir (Green Valley of Russian River Valley; $58) Raspberry, cherry, and dark spice are tucked into creamy vanillin oak; the finish is fresh and vibrant.

Francis Ford Coppola Director's Cut 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley, Sonoma County; $27) An inviting strawberries-and-cream aroma is followed by a palate of tangy cranberry and sweet red cherry—lively and mouth-watering.

Huge Bear 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley; $45) This wine delivers tons of personality in its jazzy cherry and berry fruit, silky tannins, and long, plump-fruit finish.

Irony 2012 Small Lot Reserve Pinot Noir (Monterey; $16) A savory, meaty character accompanies dark cherry fruit; tingly acidity cleanses the palate.

MacMurray Ranch 2012 Pinot Noir (Central Coast; $18) A full, complex nose leads into sweet dark cherry fruit, polished tannins, and a savory note on the finish. This one should age nicely.

MacMurray Ranch 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley, Sonoma County; $28) Plush and ripe, with a touch of tar and licorice adding interest to the black-fruit flavors. The finish here is long and dry.

MacMurray Ranch 2012 Pinot Noir (Santa Lucia Highlands; $35) Very spicy in the best way, with cinnamon and cardamom adding complexity to the ripe, mouth-filling red and black fruit and brisk, long finish.

Patz & Hall 2012 Pinot Noir (Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County; $46) Sweet oak wraps around ripe, concentrated cherry fruit, with vibrant acidity and velvety tannins creating a complete, balanced wine.

Primarius 2012 Pinot Noir (Oregon; $16) Medium-bodied and elegant, with floral aromas; crisp cherry, strawberry, and cranberry flavors; moderate tannins; and a refreshing finish. Should gain more depth with cellaring.

Red Car 2012 Platt Vineyard Pinot Noir (Sonoma Coast; $68) An intriguing smoky campfire aroma leads to a full-bodied palate of pure blueberry, blackberry, and plum fruit, with bright acidity refreshing the palate.

Roblar 2012 Gold Collection Pinot Noir (Sta. Rita Hills; $50) This wine takes the savory, mildly herbal path to complexity, combining rich cherry-berry fruit, sweet vanillin oak, and a fresh finish.

Schug 2012 Pinot Noir (Carneros; $30) Pleasingly tart strawberry and cherry flavors are mouth-watering and fresh; the palate is juicy and balanced—a lovely foil for duck.

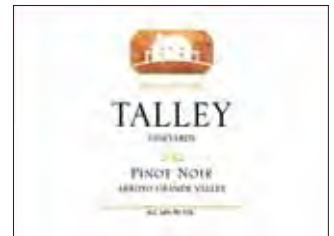

Sonoma Hills 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley; $23) Pretty and refined, this Pinot delivers drink-now pleasure with its supple red fruit, subtle oak, and bright acidity.

Sonoma-Cutrer 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley, Sonoma County; $34) A rich, layered wine with ripe red and black cherry fruit, cola and spice notes, and a bright, zingy finish.

Stemmler 2012 Estate Vineyard Pinot Noir (Carneros; $44) Vibrant tart cherry and strawberry flavors at the core of a fine balance of fruit, oak, and acidity.

Stemmler 2012 Winside Vineyard Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley; $44) Richly textured and powerful for Pinot, with ripe dark berries mingling with spicy oak and minerality.

Taft Street 2012 Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley; $24) Spicy oak is well integrated with the rich, ripe dark-red fruit. The texture is smooth, the finish long and clean.

talleyvineyards.com

Talley 2012 Pinot Noir (Arroyo Grande Valley; $36) Finesse trumps power in this pretty Pinot, with sweet, plump red fruit, very subtle oak, and a brisk, food-friendly finish.

TEMPRANILLO

★ Cinder 2011 Tempranillo (Snake River Valley; $28) An exotic hint of coconut, likely from American oak barrels, lasts from start to finish, adding interest to round, black plum fruit and spice. Fleshy and vibrant, this wine has supple tannins and an exceptionally long finish.

Bokisch 2011 Tempranillo (Lodi; $23) Complex sandalwood, spice, and dark plum aromas join rich, ripe blackberry and plum flavors, with more spice and a touch of earthiness on the crisp, lingering finish.

Castoro 2012 Whale Rock Vineyard Estate Grown Reserve Tempranillo (Paso Robles; $23) A ripe, juicy wine with plump plum fruit cloaked in sweet vanillin oak, with a spicy kick on the rich finish.

Inner Sanctum 2011 "Torro" Tempranillo (Tuolumne County; $26) Sturdy tannins qualify this wine for the cellar, yet it's delicious now, with sweet berry and plum fruit, hints of licorice and spice, and lavish toasty oak.

★ Trentadue 2012 “La Storia” Zinfandel (Alexander Valley, Sonoma County; $32) Bold, ripe berry and dark cherry fruit stays fresh and lively, with supple, easy-going tannins and spicy complexity.

Artezin 2012 Zinfandel (Mendocino County; $17) Big in all ways: very ripe mixed berries, strawberry jam, substantial (yet polished) tannins, and loads of spice. It all works beautifully for the heady style.

Boeger 2012 Estate Zinfandel (El Dorado; $18) A clean, bright Zin with briary raspberry, hints of chocolate and vanilla, and ripe, supple tannins.

Boneshaker 2012 Zinfandel (Lodi; $25) Chewy tannins, heady ripe dark fruit, and a creamy mocha midpalate beg for barbecued ribs.

Carol Shelton 2012 Lopez Vineyard Old Vine “Monga Zin” (Cucamonga Valley; $21) The attractive, grapy nose leads to a soft, juicy mouthful of bold cherry, plum, and pomegranate fruit with a milk chocolate back note and juicy acidity.

Castoro 2012 Estate Grown “Zinfusion” (Paso Robles; $23) Styled on the sweet, jammy side, with super-ripe dark fruit and raisin notes on a broad, dense palate. Good grip on the finish.

Regio 2012 “O.V.O.C.” Old Vine—Old Clone Zinfandel (Lodi; $13) An energetic and bright Zin with perfect ripeness and complexity that builds to a mouth-watering finish.

Stephen & Walker Trust Winery Limited 2012 Zinfandel (Russian River Valley; $39) A smoky barbecue aroma leads to a palate of ripe, powerful red and black berry fruit and peppery spice. A big and bold wine.

RED MERITAGE/ BORDEAUX BLENDS

★ St. Francis 2011 “Rockpile Red” (Sonoma County; $50) From its deep color to its lengthy finish, this Bordeaux-style blend is complete and complex, with buoyant red fruit, black olive, and licorice complexity and melt-in-your-mouth tannins.

Columbia Crest 2010 Walter Clore Private Reserve (Columbia Valley; $35) A moderately full-bodied wine with ripe red berry and cassis aromas and flavors, a dash of spice, and a long, bright finish.

Cooper-Garrod 2007 “Test Pilot” (Santa Cruz Mountains; $39) A substantial wine with good tannic grip, this one offers luscious red fruit, a hint of cedar, and smooth, integrated tannins. From the 2007 vintage, it’s had time in the bottle to coalesce.

Corvus 2010 “Loceaux” (Red Mountain; $29) Inky in color, with well-ripened black fruit, this wine wins with rounded tannins and great length.

Del Rio 2011 Estate Grown Claret (Rogue Valley, Oregon; $35) This attractive blend of Merlot, Cabernets Sauvignon and Franc, and Malbec has focused plum and black cherry fruit, cedar, and black pepper notes, with an elegant close.

DeLille 2011 “D2” (Columbia Valley; $46) Inky colored, dense, and built to last, with cassis, mineral, and licorice notes and young, sturdy tannins.

Dry Creek Vineyard 2011 “The Mariner” Meritage (Dry Creek Valley; $45) This blend—50% Cabernet Sauvignon filled out by Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot—is rich, dense, full, and fleshy; beautifully oaked; and ageworthy.

Halter Ranch 2011 Estate Reserve “Ancestor” (Paso Robles; $50) Full and round, with sweet black raspberry and dark cherry fruit, hints of olive and spice, and a smooth, generous finish.

Imagery Estate 2011 “Pallas” (Sonoma Valley, Sonoma County; $65) With beautifully ripe red berry and cherry fruit and a mineral streak, this one is lithe and elegant, with subtle oak letting the luscious fruit shine.

Lock & Key 2011 Meritage (North Coast; $12) Pretty violet aromas lead to mineral-laced, juicy raspberry and dark cherry flavors. The finish is bright and refreshing.

Luke Donald Collection 2011 “LDC Red” (Napa Valley; $46) Merlot steers this ship, with Cabernets Sauvignon and Franc and Petit Verdot the mates. It’s a nicely balanced, trim wine with floral and forest floor aromas and elegant red fruit flavors.

Obsidian Ridge 2010 Obsidian Ridge Vineyard “Half Mile” (Red Hills, Lake County; $60) Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot grapes grown at 2,600 feet produced this blackberry-filled wine with a juicy core and caressing tannins.

Plain Cellars 2011 “Eclipse” (Columbia Valley; $28) With smoky aromas and bright red fruit, this is a Cabernet Sauvignon-centric red to drink now.

Steppe Cellars 2009 “Artemisia” (Columbia Valley; $28) Deep and concentrated, with velvety tannins, well-toasted oak, and a rich, mouth-coating close.

SummerWood 2010 “Sentio” (Paso Robles; $60) Well-seasoned oak frames the cassis, mint, and licorice character of this broad, well-muscled red.

Swiftwater Cellars 2010 Proprietary Red (Columbia Valley; $50) All five classic red Bordeaux varieties are used here, resulting in a rich, round, and balanced wine with soft raspberry and currant fruit and complex notes of cedar, mocha, and black olive.

Sycamore Creek 2010 “Mosaico” (Santa Clara Valley; $28) Beautifully integrated sweet, spicy oak and dense, juicy red and black fruit. This wine is full-bodied and balanced.

Topel 2010 “Le Mariage” Meritage (Mendocino; $42) A graceful blend of mostly Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, this red is nicely integrated in its oak, black and red currant fruit, graphite, and eucalyptus components.

Vinoce 2011 Cabernet Franc 60%/Cabernet Sauvignon 25%/Merlot 15% (Mt. Veeder, Napa Valley; $60) Cabernet Franc gets support from Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot in this floral wine with rose petal, pomegranate, cassis, cedar, and toast notes over slightly dusty tannins.

RED RHÔNE–STYLE BLENDS

★ Vinum Cellars 2012 “Red Dirt Red” (Paso Robles; $18) This blend of Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvèdre has come-hither aromas and a mouthful of ripe red and black fruit. Hints of soy sauce and leather lend interest, and the finish is rich and lingering.

Adelaida 2011 Anna’s Estate Vineyard “Version” (Paso Robles; $50) A mélange of Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre, Cinsault, and Counoise, this blend has complex aromas and flavors of plum, raspberry, roasted meat, and charcoal set off by polished tannins and good structure.

Betz Family 2011 “Besoleil” (Columbia Valley; $45) Predominantly Grenache, with small amounts of Cinsault, Counoise, Mourvèdre, and Syrah, this wine has pretty blue, black, and red fruits; firm yet supple tannins; and a long, elegant finale.

Estancia 2012 Reserve GSM (Monterey County; $30) This GSM—Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre—offers vibrant berry and spice, mocha oak, and a very long finish.

Turkey Flat 2012 “Butchers Block” (Barossa Valley, Australia; $20) This potent Syrah/Grenache/Mourvèdre blend has effusive cherry and berry aromas and flavors, solid structure, and a luscious depth of flavor. Grenache provides a dash of spice and cherry sweetness, while Mourvèdre adds extra tannins and fragrance.

Ad Lucem 2012 Red Heaven Vineyard “Daystar” 51% Mourvèdre/29% Syrah/20% Grenache (Columbia Valley; $40)

OTHER DRY RED BLENDS

★ Sokol Blosser NV 3rd Edition
“Evolution Red” (American; $15)
A Syrah-based, lip-smacking blend that balances spicy raspberry fruit and good grip. This wine is an uncomplicated pleasure to drink.

Casey Flat Ranch 2010 “CFR”
Estate Red (Capay Valley; $35)
This blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc, and Mourvèdre has floral and peppercorn aromas, ripe cherry fruit, and spicy oak, with a rich, long finish.

Casey Flat Ranch 2011 “Open Range Red” (California; $18)
Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Petite
Sirah, Mourvèdre, and Merlot meld beautifully in this full-bodied red with bright fruit and supple tannins.

Double Decker 2011 Red (California; $10) Cabernet Sauvignon, Petite Sirah, and Barbera comprise this juicy wine with vibrant red fruit and a hint of vanillin oak.

Ghost Pines 2012 “Winemaker’s
Red Blend” (California; $23)
Deep, juicy dark fruit is layered with creamy vanillin and slightly herbal complexity. Silky tannins add to a rich, lingering finish.

Muscardini 2010 “Tesoro”
(Sonoma County; $49) This blend of Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Syrah has an Old World elegance in its subtlety and refreshing acidity, with bright berry and cassis flavors and a long, brisk finish.

roblarwinery.com

Roblar 2011 “Ottimo” (Santa Barbara County; $42) A silky Syrah/Cabernet/Sangiovese blend that delivers a balanced mix of lush dark cherry, sarsaparilla, toasty
French oak, and a refreshing finish.

Trentadue 2012 “La Storia” Cuvée 32 (Alexander Valley,

Gloria Ferrer 2010 Late Disgorged Blanc de Blancs Brut (Carneros; $40)

Cobblestone 2011 Méthode Traditionnelle Blanc de Blancs (Monterey; $30)

VINTAGE BRUT: TRADITIONAL GRAPES

★ Gloria Ferrer 2006 Late Disgorged "Royal Cuvée" Brut (Carneros; $35) Impressive Champagne-like character, with brioche, baked apple, and nutty aromas. The palate is rich yet crisp and lacy, with fresh citrus, apple, and berry fruit.

Domaine Carneros by Taittinger 2009 Méthode Champenoise Brut (Carneros; $32) A mélange of bright apple, citrus, nectarine, and pear fruit is enhanced by a creamy brioche midpalate and a long, complex finish.

NONVINTAGE BRUT: TRADITIONAL GRAPES

★ Gloria Ferrer NV Méthode Champenoise Brut (Sonoma County; $22) Inviting baked-biscuit and vanilla aromas lead to a rich, creamy wine that finishes bright and fresh, with juicy citrus and apple flavors and a slight hint of cocoa for complexity.

Scharffenberger NV Méthode Traditionnelle Brut "Excellence" (Mendocino County; $20)

NONVINTAGE BLANC DE NOIRS: TRADITIONAL GRAPES

NEW WORLD DESSERT WINES

ICE WINES

★ Kiona 2012 Chenin Blanc Ice Wine (Red Mountain; $25, 375 ml.) A beautiful study in apples (applesauce, dried apple rollup, and apple skin) with a luscious palate and vibrant finish.

RUBY PORT-STYLE WINES

roxocellars.com

★ Roxo 2009 Método Português "Ruby Tradicional" (Paso Robles; $44) Mimics a vintage Portuguese ruby port, with intense brown sugar and molasses to go with ripe black fruit. The grippy tannins should resolve with time in the bottle.

Brian Carter 2011 "Opulento" (Yakima Valley; $22)

Drytown NV Lot 1202 Port (California; $20)

retzlaffwinery.com

SWEET SHERRY-STYLE WINES

Rancho de Philo NV Triple Cream Sherry (Cucamonga Valley, California; $35)

OTHER FORTIFIED DESSERT WINE

★ Ficklin NV Old Vine Tinta Port (Madera; $15) Made from traditional Portuguese varieties, this is similar to a madeira, its broad, sweet palate bright with salinity and balanced alcohol and acidity.

Sorelle 2012 "Piccolo" Late Harvest Primitivo (Lodi; $18) Produced from Primitivo, this wine offers focused, sweet raspberry, blackberry, and boysenberry jam flavors. Lively acidity contributes a fresh finish and suggests that the wine can be cellared for a decade or more.

FORTIFIED FRUIT WINES

Finnriver NV Black Currant Wine with Apple Brandy (Washington; $20)

OLD WORLD DESSERT WINES

SWEET MARSALA (DOC)

★ Cantine Florio NV (Marsala DOC; $14) Rich and sweet, with layers of caramel, dates, orange marmalade, spiced nuts, and cardamom unfolding through a mouth-coating finish.

DRY MARSALA (DOC)

★ Cantine Florio NV (Marsala DOC; $14) Medium-sweet and nicely balanced, with caramel, dates, grilled citrus, and candied orange peel lingering at the end.

LATE BOTTLED VINTAGE PORTO (DOC)

Dow's 2008 Late Bottled Vintage (Porto DOC; $23)

SPANISH QUALITY (DO) SWEET MUSCAT

★ Jorge Ordoñez & Co. 2013 "Victoria 2" Unfortified Sweet Muscat (Málaga DO; $25) Made from the Muscat of Alexandria grape, this wine is floral, full-flavored, and ripe, with intense sweetness cut by brisk acidity on the lingering finish.

Jorge Ordoñez & Co. 2010 Vino Naturalmente Dulce Old Vines Moscatel (Málaga DO; $76)

Jorge Ordoñez & Co. 2012 Selección Especial No. 1 Unfortified Sweet Muscat (Málaga DO; $18)

FLAVORED AND NON-GRAPE WINES

APPLE WINE

★ Chouinard NV Hog Canyon Orchard Granny Smith Apple Wine ($14) There's pure apple personality here; light, refreshing, and balanced, this one has just enough skin tannin to take it seriously as wine. Give it a good chill before serving.

FLAVORED RICE WINE

Kooksoondang 2014 iCing Grapefruit (South Korea; $2, 350 ml.)
